Mireille chose the theme of Reconciliation and produced a historical fiction about the reality of a young Aboriginal youth sent to boarding school, where she was separated from her family, culture and traditions. Mireille has written very meaningful and relevant text to represent what was experienced by several First Nations, Métis and Inuit families in Canada. (Read Mireille's text – in French.)

We would also like to mention the support of the French and Social Studies teacher, Mr. François Bergeron, who introduced the project to the students and who accompanied Mireille. For her excellent work, Mireille receives a $1,000 scholarship.

École des Quatre-Vents and the Conseil scolaire du Nord-Ouest are very proud of Mireille and would like to acknowledge and applaud her accomplishment.

The province of Alberta has: 6 finalists in Calgary, 1 in Edmonton and 1 in Peace River.
